

ENABLING AND ENCOURAGING ENTREPRENEURIAL LEARNING IN SERBIA

BELGRADE 27 AUGUST 2015

ENABLING AND ENCOURAGING ENTREPRENEURIAL LEARNING IN SERBIA 27 AUGUST, MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT KLUB, TOLSTOJEVA 2

8.30 – 9.00	Registration
9.00 – 9.15	Introductions and welcome Srdjan Verbić, Minister of Education, Science and Technological Development Denis Keefe, British Ambassador to Serbia
9.15 – 9.45	Entrepreneurial learning experience in Serbia Mirjana Bojanić, Special Adviser of Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development Katarina Obradović Jovanović, Assistant of Ministry of Economy Jelena Marković, Deputy Team Leader, Social Inclusion and Poverty Reduction Unit
9.45 – 10.15	European dimension: European framework for entrepreneurial learning. Margherita Bacigalupo, OMC representative from European Commission will present the new framework for entrepreneurial learning
10.15 – 11.00	UK dimension: the key components of the UK's national policy for enterprise in primary and secondary education Professor Nigel Culkin from University of Hertfordshire will discuss two recent initiatives, which are set to have a major impact this area, including the 'Lord Young Report', 'Enterprise report.
11.00 – 11.30	Break
11.30 – 12.15	What makes an entrepreneurial teacher? Promoting the inclusion of entrepreneurial skills and competences in both initial teacher/trainer education programmes and continuous professional development. Radovan Živković, Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development Slađana Živković, primary school from Serbia Biljana Vasić, Pharmacy-Physiotherapy school in Belgrade Catherine Brentnall, Ready Unlimited, UK

12.15 – 13.15	Lunch
13.15 – 14.00	Regional Approach to Developing an Enterprising Education System Maja Ljubić, SEECEL (South East European Centre for Entrepreneurial Learning) will present the importance of entrepreneurship to youngsters from the early age. SEECEL's strategic objective is to support participating countries in their efforts to develop a culture of entrepreneurship by specially addressing entrepreneurship in early education.
14.00 – 14.45	Curriculum Models of Enterprise Education in the UK. What does good practice look like? Prof. Nigel Culkin will discuss three different approaches employed in the UK to a) plan and develop enterprise education; b) embed enterprise into the curriculum; and c) linking to Employers.
14.45– 15.00	Break
15.00– 15.30	Research about entrepreneurial learning in Serbia Jasminka Marković from Centre for Education Policies will present models, effects, lessons learned, good practices of entrepreneurial learning in Serbia.
15.30 – 16.30	Discussion, feedback and planning ahead
16:30	End